ETHICAL PRACTICES BOARD ISSUES REPORT

ON LOBBYING DISBURSEMENTS FOR 1984

Lobbying disbursements during 1984, disclosed by 1,060 lobbyists for 810 associations and individuals totaled $1,130,825, according to reports filed with the Ethical Practices Board.

Lobbyists filed a total of 6,431 quarterly reports for 1984 and disclosed that 450 associations and individuals reported disbursements for lobbying purposes (55% of the associations and individuals for whom lobbyists are registered).

Included in the Board's summary are lobbyists representing 207 associations who reported lobbying disbursements of $826,420 (73.0% of total lobbying disbursements); lobbying subjects in this group include Business Related Associations, Businesses, Chambers of Commerce, Petroleum and Natural Gas, Transportation and Public Utilities.

A total of 49 citizen groups and individuals reported lobbying disbursements of $52,036 (4.6% of total lobbying disbursements in 1984).

Other 1984 lobbying disbursements of $252,369 (22.4% of total disbursements) are reported by lobbyists for 184 associations whose lobbying subjects include Health, Education, Agriculture/Environment, Banks, Insurance, Government, Labor/Employee Relations, and Legal.

In 1983 total disbursements were $1,177,800, reported by lobbyists for 466 associations and individuals (57% of the 823 associations and individuls represented by lobbyists); in 1982 total disbursements were $732,577, reported by lobbyists for 387 associations and individuals (52% of the 750 associations and individuals represented by lobbyists).

Lobbying disbursements for the ten associations reporting the highest expenditures in 1984 totaled $563,047 (49.7% of lobbying disbursements in 1984).

Minnesota's Ethics in Government Act (Minn. Stat. Chapter 10A) requires lobbyists to report to the Ethical Practices Board disbursements for lobbying purposes including a gift, loan, honorarium, entertainment, food or beverage, travel and lodging of $50 or more to a public official; preparing and distributing lobbying materials; media advertising, telephone, telegraph, and postage; fees and allowances; entertainment, food and beverage, travel and lodging. Lobbyists are not required to disclose their salaries or their political contributions. All lobbyist reports are available for public inspection at the Board office, located in room 200, Capitol Medical Office Building, 590 Park Street, St Paul, Minnesota, during renovation of the State Office Building.

The Board has prepared a summary of lobbying disbursements during 1984. Included are listing of individuals or associations that contributed over $500 to associations for lobbying purposes and public officials who received gifts or other benefits of $50 or more disclosed in reports filed by lobbyists in 1984. A copy of the summary is available for viewing at the Board office.

Comparisons of lobbying disbursements for 1982-1984 are attached.

CONTENTS

ORIGINAL SOURCE OF FUNDS (to individuals or associations represented) 3

Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A requires that "each original source of funds in excess of $500 in any year used for the purpose of lobbying shall be reported". List includes the name of the individual or association represented and the source of the payment.

DISBURSEMENTS (to public officials) 7

According to Minnesota Public Disclosure Law, Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A, "public official" means state legislators; constitutional officers of the executive branch and their chief deputies; commissioners, deputy or assistant commissioners of state departments designated in Minn. Stat. §15.01; solicitor general, assistant attorney general; members, chief and deputy chief administrative officers of boards and commissions with rulemaking authority; certain legislative employees; complete list is available from the Ethical Practices Board.

DISBURSEMENT CATEGORIES 9

TOTAL DISBURSEMENTS (by individuals and associations) 10

Reported in this summary are the individual or association represented; registered lobbyist; payment of over $500 to a lobbyist for lobbying purposes; and total disbursements for lobbying purposes.

Note

Information disclosed on Lobbyist Registration Form: name and address of the registrant, name of the individual (including officers and directors) represented, general description of subjects on which registrant expects to lobby.

All registration forms and reports filed in accordance with Minnesota Public Disclosure Law are available for public inspection at the office of the State Ethical Practices Board, temporarily located at 200 Capitol Medical Office Building, 590 Park Street, St. Paul, Minnesota, during renovation of the State Office Building.

Information compiled as of March 1, 1985.

Who is a Lobbyist?

- Any individual who is engaged for pay or other consideration or authorized by another individual or association to spend money and who spends more than five hours in any month or more than $250 in any year (not including travel expenses and membership dues) for the purpose of attempting to influence legislative or administrative action by communicating with or urging others to communicate with public officials.
- Any individual who spends more than $250 in any year (not including travel expenses and membership dues) for the purpose of attempting to influence legislative or administrative action by communicating with or urging others to communicate with public officials.
- Any individual who merely communicates with a public official to obtain information or request an interpretation of a law, rule or agency action is not a "lobbyist."

What is Lobbying?

Lobbying is defined as attempting to influence legislative or administrative action by communicating with public officials or urging others to communicate with public officials.

- "Administrative action" means an action by any official, board, commission or agency of the executive branch (does not include metropolitan agencies) to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule. "Administrative action" does not include the application or administration of an adopted rule, except in cases of rate setting, power plant siting, and granting of certificates of need under Minnesota Statutes Chapter 116J.
- "Legislative action" means any action or nonaction with regard to any bill, resolution, amendment, nomination, appointment, report, or any other matter which may be the subject of action by either house of the legislature, committee, subcommittee, or commission of the legislature. "Legislative action" also means an attempt to influence a gubernatorial approval or veto of any bill, or an attempt to influence the governor or any public official about development of a proposal for introduction in the legislature.

What must Lobbyists report?

Each year lobbyists are required to file quarterly reports with the Ethical Practices Board. During calendar year 1984, 1,060 lobbyists filed approximately 6,431 reports for 810 associations or individuals, disclosing expenditures totalling $1,130,825.

ORIGINAL SOURCE OF FUNDS (for lobbying purposes)

Lobbyists must disclose the names of individuals or associations that contribute to the lobbyist or the association the lobbyist represents over $500 in a calendar year for lobbying purposes.

ABOUT LOBBYIST DISCLOSURE

A state system of permanent registration of lobbyists and reporting of lobbying disbursements, established by the legislature in 1974, under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 10A.

. lo enable public officials and the public to know who is being represented and by whom; and

. How much is being spent to influence legislative and administrative actions of public officials.

DISBURSEMENTS (reporting categories)

- Preparing and distributing lobbying materials
  The cost of research and writing of reports from which data is subsequently used for lobbying materials is not reportable.
  The cost of preparation, publication, and distribution of newsletters or other publications includes pro-rata office expenses and compensation paid to an employee. However, only the cost of that portion of the newsletter or publication which is lobbying material need be reported.
- Media advertising
  Only the cost of media including but not limited to billboards, newspapers, radio, and television time which advocate a particular position is reportable.
- Telegraph and telephone
- Postage
- Fees, salaries, and allowances
  Includes consultant fees for lobbying purposes as well as expenses incurred in providing those services. Includes compensation for clerical expense incurred for providing lobbying materials or organizing communication with public officials or in urging others to communicate with public officials.
  This category does not include compensation paid to a lobbyist for services as a lobbyist on behalf of the employer.
- Entertainment
  Includes cost of entertainment provided for a lobbying purpose to public officials as well as the cost of entertainment for the lobbyist, the employer, or employee of the lobbyist when in the company of the public official for whom the lobbyist has paid the cost of the entertainment.
- Food and beverage, travel, and lodging
  Includes the cost of food, beverages, travel, and lodging provided by a lobbyist, the employer, or employee of a lobbyist at meetings, banquets, or similar functions for a lobbying purpose.
  Includes the costs of food, beverages, travel and lodging provided by a lobbyist, the employer, or employee of a lobbyist at meetings or conferences for the purpose of urging other to communicate with public officials.
  Includes the cost of food, beverages, travel, and lodging for paid expert witness if not registered as a lobbyist.
  Includes the cost of travel and lodging of a lobbyist for the purpose of lobbying except those incurred to enable the lobbyist to attend a meeting of or to appear before a committee of the legislature, a state board, commission, or agency.
