Aggregate special source contribution limits

All candidates (except judicial candidates) are subject to an aggregate contribution limit. This limit is not dependent on the signing of a Public Subsidy Agreement. This limit applies to the aggregate of all contributions and loans received during the year from:

- lobbyists,
- political committees or political funds,
- large givers, who are persons who donate more than the amount specified in the right-hand column in the chart below.

Office	Aggregate limits 2010	A large giver is a person who during the calendar year donates more than:
Governor/Lt. Governor	$515,500	$1,000
Attorney General	$86,000	$500
Secretary of State, State Auditor	$43,000	$500
Senate	$12,900	$250
House of Representatives	$6,500	$250

The aggregate contribution limit does not increase for first time candidates, candidates in a contested primary, or candidates who did not sign a public subsidy agreement or have been released from their spending limits.

Spending limit. The spending limit includes the total of:

1. Monetary campaign expenditures,
2. In-kind campaign expenditures, and
3. Unpaid campaign expenditures.

First Time Candidate. A candidate is eligible for a 10% first-time candidate spending increase if the following conditions are met:

1. The candidate is running for the particular office for the first time, and
2. The candidate has not previously run for any other office (including local offices) whose territory now includes a population that is more than one-third of the population in the territory of the new office.

The first time candidate spending increase is available during each year of the election cycle, not just the election year.

Closely Contested Primary election. A candidate is eligible for a 20% spending increase for having a closely contested primary election if the following conditions are met:

1. The candidate had one or more opponents in the primary election,
2. The candidate won the primary election, and
3. The candidate received fewer than twice as many votes as any one of the opponents in the primary. The closely contested primary spending increase is available for use only after the primary election.
