ETHICAL PRACTICES BOARD ISSUES REPORT ON LOBBYING DISBURSEMENTS

FOR JULY, 1987 THROUGH JUNE, 1988

Lobbying disbursements disclosed by 1,390 lobbyists for 1,029 associations and individuals totaled $2,373,228 according to reports filed with the Ethical Practices Board.

Lobbyists have filed a total of 8,240 quarterly reports for the twelve month period and disclosed that 608 associations and individuals reported disbursements for lobbying purposes (59% of the associations and individuals for whom lobbyists are registered).

Included in the Board's summary report are disbursements during the second year of the 1987-1988 legislative session. Lobbyists representing 422 associations reported lobbying disbursements of $1,510,063 (41% of total lobbying disbursements); lobbying subjects in this group include Business Related Associations, Businesses, Chambers of Commerce, Petroleum and Natural Gas, Transportation and Public Utilities.

A total of 178 citizen groups and individuals reported lobbying disbursements of $154,448 (17% of total lobbying disbursements in 1987-1988).

Other 1987-1988 lobbying disbursements of $708,717 (42% of total disbursements are reported by lobbyists for 429 associations whose lobbying subjects include Health, Education, Agriculture/Environment, Banks, Insurance, Government, Labor/Employee Relations and Legal.

For January through June, 1987, the first year of the 1987-1988 legislative session and the special legislative session in June 1987, 1,162 lobbyists for 933 associations and individuals reported total lobbying disbursements of $1,879,897 (63% of the associations and individuals for whom lobbyists were registered).

Total lobbying disbursements of $1,513,888 for 1986 were reported by 1059 lobbyists for 474 associations and individuals (56% of the 845 associations and individuals represented by lobbyists).

Lobbying disbursements for associations reporting the highest expenditures in 1987-1988 for administrative lobbying totaled $863,965 (36% of lobbying disbursements) and for legislative lobbying $1,509,263 (64% of lobbying disbursements).

Minnesota's Ethics in Government Act (Minn. Stat. 10A) requires lobbyists to report to the Ethical Practices Board disbursements for lobbying purposes including a gift, loan, honorarium, entertainment, food or beverage, travel and lodging of $50 or more to a public official; preparing and distributing lobbying materials, media advertising, telephone and telegraph, postage, fees and allowances, entertainment, salaries for their political contributions. All lobbyists reports are available for public inspection at the Board office, 625 North Robert Street, St. Paul, Minnesota .

The Board has prepared a summary of lobbying disbursements for July 1987 through June 1988. Included are listings of individuals or associations that contributed over $500 to associations for lobbying purposes and public officials who received gifts, honorariums or other benefits of $50 or more disclosed in reports filed by lobbyists for 1987-1988. A copy of the summary is available for viewing at the Board office.

About This Summary

Information in this summary is based on reports filed by lobbyists registered with the Ethical Practices Board. Neither verified nor audited, these reports are available for public inspection at the Board office. No information from filed reports or statements may be sold or utilized by any individual or association for any commercial purpose. Information compiled as of August 22, 1988.

"Original source of funds" to associations or individuals represented by a lobbyist - Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A requires that "each original source of funds in excess of $500 in any year used for the purpose of lobbying shall be reported". List includes the name of the association or individual receiving the funds and the name of the association or individual paying the funds.

"Disbursements" to public officials - Lobbyists must disclose any gift, loan, honorarium, entertainment, food and beverage, travel, and lodging equal in value to $50 or more to a public official from the lobbyist, the lobbyist's employer, or an employee of the lobbyist. "Public official" means state legislators; constitutional officers of the executive branch and their chief deputies; commissioners, deputy or assistant commissioners of state departments designated in Minn. Stat. §15.01; solicitor general, assistant and special assistant attorneys general; members, chief and deputy chief administrative officers of boards and commissions with rulemaking authority; certain legislative employees; complete list of "public official" designees is available from the Ethical Practices Board office.

"Total disbursements" by association or individual - This summary includes total disbursements for lobbying purposes by associations or individuals represented by registered lobbyists; "*" indicates payment of more than $500 to a lobbyist for lobbying purposes.

Who is a Lobbyist?

- . Any individual who is engaged for pay or other consideration or authorized by another individual or association to spend money and who spends more than five hours in any month or more than $250 in any year (not including travel expenses and membership dues) for the purpose of attempting to influence legislative or administrative action by communicating with or urging others to communicate with public officials.
- . Any individual who spends more than $250 in any year (not including travel expenses and membership dues) for the purpose of attempting to influence legislative or administrative action by communicating with or urging others to communicate with public officials.
- . Any individual who merely communicates with a public official to obtain information or request an interpretation of a law, rule or agency action is not a "lobbyist".

What is Lobbying?

Lobbying is defined as attempting to influence legislative or administrative action by communicating with public officials or urging others to communicate with public officials.

- . "Administrative action" means an action by any official, board, commission or agency of the executive branch (does not include metropolitan agencies) to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule. "Administrative action" does not include the application or administration of an adopted rule, except in cases of rate setting, power plant and powerline siting, and granting of certificates of need under Minnesota Statutes Chapter 116J.
- . "Legislative action" means any action or nonaction with regard to any bill, resolution, amendment, nomination, appointment, report, or any other matter which may be the subject of action by either house of the legislature, committee, subcommittee, or commission of the legislature. "Legislative action" also means an attempt to influence a gubernatorial approval or veto of any bill, or an attempt to influence the governor or any public official about development of a proposal for introduction in the legislature.

About Lobbyist Registration

A lobbyist must complete and file with the Ethical Practices Board a Lobbyist Registration on behalf of each association or individual whom the lobbyist represents. Information disclosed on Lobbyist Registration Form: name and address of the registrant, name of the association (including officers and directors) or individual represented, and general description of subjects on which registrant expects to lobby.

All lobbyist registrations and lobbyist quarterly reports filed under the Ethics in Government Act, Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 10A, are available for public inspection at the Board office, 625 North Robert Street, St. Paul, MN 55101-2520.

What must Lobbyists report?

Each year lobbyists are required to file quarterly reports with the Ethical Practices Board. For description of "Disbursement Categories", see page #. From July, 1987 through June, 1988, 1,390 lobbyists filed approximately 8,240 reports for 1,029 associations or individuals, disclosing lobbying disbursements of $2,373,228.

ORIGINAL SOURCE OF FUNDS (for lobbying purposes)

Lobbyists must disclose the names of individuals or associations that pay over $500 in a calendar year to the lobbyist or the association the lobbyist represents for lobbying purposes.
